

Becoming a Formula 500 Driver in the Northern Territory:

- Northern Territory Formula 500 Association Membership
 - Membership runs 1st July > 30th June
 - Form available below

- Apply for licence through Speedway Australia
 - Northern Territory Formula 500 Association will receive licences from speedway Australia and Log Book/Chassis Stickers from Australian Formula 500 Committee.
 - Current NT500 Membership is required before licence can be dispatched to Driver
 - Link Below

- Become familiar with Rules and Requirements
 - Formula 500's Australia Racing Regulations and Specifications linked below
 - Speedway Australia Racing Rules and Regulations

- Get in contact with your local track
 - Drivers should be affiliated with home tracks if competing in more than 3 meeting
 - Northline Speedway/Darwin
 - Katherine Speedway
 - Nhulunbuy Speedway/Gove
 - Tennant Creek Speedway
 - Arunga Park Speedway/Alice Springs

- Race Nights
 - A calendar with race dates can be found here. (dates are subject to change please confirm with track)
 - Nomination Forms – Nominations are required by tracks generally 1-2 weeks before meeting (Late Nominations will incur a fee)
 - Scrutineering – Cars and Safety Gear will be checked prior to racing to ensure it meets requirements.
 - Drivers Briefing – Drivers are required to attend a safety briefing prior to racing